

We enjoy the stringency of Indiana's telephone privacy laws as they now stand. We truly value the peace and quiet we have gained since inane callers can no longer harass us daily - the silence is glorious! A national law would be great but it would undermine what we already have here. Please reconsider preempting our laws to initiate yours. Thank you.